

WEATHER BULLETIN:

Tropical storm Irene passed through the British Virgin Islands Sunday morning, August 21st. Irene brought ten inches of rain in twelve hours causing minimal damage to the British Virgin Islands. We are pleased to inform you that due to proper planning and design Oil Nut Bay, Yacht Club Costa Smeralda Virgin Gorda, and Biras Creek Resort had no damage. We will continue to update you with news in reference to the British Virgin Islands and our three developments.

For more information on Irene and her path, please visit
<http://www.weather.com>
<http://www.weather.gov>