HIGH-CLASS HERITAGE

Princess Grace of Monaco and Winston Churchill were among the many glittering guests who visited Cherry Hill, a 1930s modernist masterpiece on the Wentworth Estate in Surrey. Once the country home of the US ambassador John Hay Whitney, the listed building is set on four acres and occupies a private setting close to the excellent golf course. The interiors have been exquisitely updated to make this rare architectural jewel as outstanding today as when it was first built. £30 million.

A SLICE OF PARADISE

Spanning 300 acres of the British Virgin Islands, Oil Nut Bay is a secluded and sustainably preserved resort comprising 88 individual plots. It offers freehold ownership to buyers – a rare opportunity – as well as a dedicated construction team who will work with you to design and build your tailor-made tropical hideaway. The resort has a spa, gym and a world-class restaurant, while in the new Marina Village there are boutiques, a coffee shop, and even a library. Properties from $950,000. CHELSEA CHARM

Behind a Victorian façade on the corner of the Brompton Road lies one of London's most glamorous residential developments. The interior layouts of the 18 apartments are by Argent Design, whose background in yacht and private-jet design has resulted in the clever use of every inch of space, from hidden storage in the kitchens to bespoke beds that conceal USB ports and reading lights. With its smart entrance, concierge and excellent location, ONE Brompton is as shipshape a pied-à-terre as you could wish for. From £895,000. For more information, visit www.onebrompton.co.uk
